

BINAH: Building Insights to Navigate Antisemitism & Hate

FREE DIGITAL LESSONS

Allyship & Understanding

BINAH: Building Insights to Navigate Antisemitism & Hate is a digital course developed in partnership with the Anti-Defamation League that motivates students to identify as global citizens with respect for all people, regardless of the makeup of their school community. Students learn through short real-world stories, helping them engage in topics like the Holocaust, the lives of Hasidic Jews, immigration and antisemitic acts in America. These personal stories help students build empathy, perspective-taking and allyship.

The Immigration Story

THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE

- EVERFI's self-graded, interactive lessons help students develop simple, actionable strategies for positively contributing to a healthy classroom culture.
- Real-world scenarios prime students for long-term behavioral change using problem-solving and self-reflection activities.
- Detailed score reports and offline extension activities help teachers maximize their impact across all students.

Grade Level: 9th - 12th

Total Lessons: 4 digital lessons; 15 minutes each

Curriculum Fit: Social Studies, English Language Arts, Advisory

Standards Alignment: C3 Social Studies Standards, Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts and College and Career Readiness

EACH LESSON HAS A PRE- AND POST-ASSESSMENT WITH REAL-TIME SCORE REPORTING

“This is a wonderful curriculum, I highly recommend it for all students.”

— Dr. Miriam Kassenoff, Child Holocaust survivor and Education Specialist for Holocaust Studies, Miami-Dade County Public Schools

LESSON SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

1. The Early Story - In the first three stories, learners will look at the history of antisemitism with a specific focus on how it evolved over time and persisted throughout many communities and parts of society.

Story 1: The Immigration Story

Story 2: Antisemitism in the U.S. Post-WWII

Story 3: Jewish Integration

2. Modern Jewish Life - In these stories, students develop an understanding that the Jewish community is made up of many types of people, in no way monolithic, and all Jews have their own perspective on current events.

Story 4: Cultural Jewish Practice

Story 5: Practice of Jewish Life in America: Orthodox

Story 6: Practice of Jewish Life in America: Jewish People of Color

3. The Impact of Antisemitism - In these stories, students will develop a response to an instance of antisemitism. Students explore a series of topics that graduate from the personal impact of stereotypes to the violence bias and prejudice can cause.

Story 7: Understanding Stereotypes

Story 8: Antisemitic Acts: Local & National

Story 9: Importance of Language

4. Being an Ally - In these stories, students will develop an understanding of the subtleties of antisemitic language. They will explore how Jewish people may look for help from allies and what it means to be an ally to the Jewish community.

Story 10: Personal Prejudice to Political Will

Story 11: How to be an Ally at Home and in Your Community

Ready to Start? Email Katie McMeans at k12south@everfi.com

LESSON ACTIVITIES:

20th Century American Judaism

U.S. Antisemitism in the 1900's

There are many examples of antisemitism from the United States in the 1900's. These are just some examples ranging from the political to the social, from conspiracies imported to those that took root here, experienced by Jewish immigrants.

U.S. Response to the Holocaust

Protocols of the Elders of Zion

Jews in the Media

Lynching of Leo

20th Century American Judaism

Orthodox Life in the U.S.

Some people think that is isolating but I think that in that. My Chassidic community, Chabad, took approach, and focused on outreach and education Jews across the world to connect with traditional communities that they may not otherwise have

Next →

20th Century American Judaism

EVERFI from Blackbaud

EVERFI, Inc. A Blackbaud company, empowers educators to bring real-world learning into the classroom and equip students with the skills they need for success - now and in the future. 3 of 5 U.S. school districts use EVERFI's digital resources to teach topics like financial literacy, social-emotional learning, career readiness, and prevention education.

EVERFI
2300 N Street NW
Washington, DC 20037
(202) 625-0011
<http://www.everfi.com/k-12>